

Listening and Language Skills for Speechwriters: A 1-day Communication Masterclass

Learn how to:

- amplify the power of your language
- position a course of action as desirable using an individual's values and beliefs, rather than your own
- plan and prepare like a hostage negotiator for important conversations
- build and gain trust and rapport with your speaker and your audiences
- get information without asking questions
- listen with heightened awareness
- know what to listen for
- master the art of negotiation
- move to advanced level listening

What can I expect?

Three things:

To be entertained

To be challenged

To learn a lot of new stuff

What's Mullender's delivery style?

Not remotely corporate. Fun. Unexpected. With plenty of role play and learning through doing.

What's the biggest benefit?

Having a skill very few people have and using it to communicate to your advantage.
